Sharepoint Upgrade

Contract Number: JDA SHAREPOINT 001/2015

The importance of managing information cannot be underestimated. Information drives an organisation and enhances knowledge management. It is for this reason that the JDA invested in sharepoint, a central document tool that enables users to share documents, share knowledge, while at the same time ensuring that there is a proper governance tool framework to enable the documents to be accessed in a secure and auditable manner.

Despite having this invaluable tool already, the JDA has realised the need to upgrade it to match its ever-changing landscape of information, while at the same time enjoying the benefits that the tool has been modified over time.

The JDA is therefore looking to upgrade its Microsoft sharepoint platform.

Telephone Upgrade

Contract Number: JDA TELEPHONE 001/2015

The importance of communication cannot be underestimated. Telephone communication is vital in enabling the JDA community to interact among themselves as well as with outside stakeholders. Two critical areas drive communication, one is the speed of communication, while the other is the use of a telephone 'system' that is highly cost effective. The JDA is therefore looking for a cost-effective and efficient telephone system that will drive efficiency in communication as well as save costs.

The current telephone system does not address these two critical aspects, hence the request for an upgrade of the whole telephone infrastructure and overall solution.
