- Signed deeds of sale at agreed value. Value to be approved by JDA in line with the recommended value as identified by an independent valuer; OR
- Preparation of expropriation notices and handing over of expropriation notices to the Johannesburg Property Company (JPC)
- Expropriation Notices shall comply with the provisions of the Expropriation Act, 1975 and shall detail the process of passing of ownership and the owner's duties as contained in the Act.
- Advise the client on the technical and functional characteristics of the project as proposed, the estimated costs in relation to the budget and the anticipated time based programme as described in the Act is to be prepared for each property that is to be expropriated. All milestones are to be highlighted.

2. PROPERTY VALUATION

The Property Valuer should:

- Prepare valuation for each of the identified properties
- State the extent of the process of collecting, confirming and reporting data
- Collect, verify, analyse and reconcile data as are available in support of your conclusion
- Include and explain all calculations showing how data have been applied. Applicability of comparables, reasons for acceptance or rejection of data and final adjustments must be included, if necessary
- Describe the information considered, the procedures followed and the reasoning that supports the analyses, opinions and conclusion, if necessary

Where comparable sales are being used to estimate market value, a minimum of five selected sales should be used, the Property Valuer should:

- Include a list of comparable sales
- Indicate how market data were interpreted, adjusted and applied
- Provide the date and price of subject property most recent sale, if information available

Liaise with the appointed Property Broker to prepare offer to purchase

3. CONVEYANCING ATTORNEYS

The Conveyancing Attorney should:

- Advise the client on procedures and all legal requirements to acquire properties
- Attend to the transfer of the identified properties or part thereof, in terms of either the Deed of Sale Agreement signed between the parties or the Notice of Expropriation as served on the land owner.
- Liaise with the appointed Property Broker to prepare the Notice of Expropriation.
